

Amanuel Fikeru

A handsome 11 year old boy

Born: August 11, 1997

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Amanuel attends school and is in the 5th grade. He is very smart and can speak French fluently. His favorite subjects are Mathematics and English. His native language is Amharic.

He loves the color red and Taekwondo class is his favorite activity.

Amanuel believes that Jesus Christ is his Lord and Savior. He attends Sunday school classes at Addis Kidan Church.

He is a very loving and compassionate young man!

The family:

- Amanuel has one older brother. His father has died and his mother is HIV+. Amanuel is HIV+ and is receiving treatment for the virus.
- His mother is a believer and volunteers in the Good Samaritan Program on Friday's at Addis Kidan Church. She does home visits of HIV+ women in the Mekanisa Area, bringing them the message of hope and encouragement through God's word.
- His mother earns 600 birr a month renting out houses on her compound. She owns three homes on a compound. They live in a small mud and straw house with a tin roof. She has no other income or work.